The Unknown Internment

Burqas, car bombs, and Bombay Sapphire - welcome to life in post-Taliban Kabul from the viewpoint of Sally Cooper, an Australian journalist and aid worker who took a job training journalists for a United Nations humanitarian news agency. When she arrived in Afghanistan, Sally knew next to nothing about the country. Once in Kabul, she moved into the Karwan Sara guesthouse - and quickly met a cast of characters that drew her into the strange realities of life in "the Ghan". Some of the many questions posed include: What do you do when you discover your male hotel cleaner wearing your clothes? How do you blend into the background at a Friday night dog fight when you're the only woman there - and you're a blonde Westerner? Under what circumstances do you decide that wearing a burqa is for your own protection? How do you live and work in a place where the car next to yours at the traffic lights could be driven by a suicide bomber?

This volume offers a path-breaking reassessment of Xu Bing's oeuvre by analyzing the diverse cultural environments in which his work has developed since the Book from the Sky. It contains three lecture transcripts and eight art historical essays; these explore themes such as Xu's animal works, audience participation, new ink, prints, realism, socialist spectacle, and word play. A critical question addressed in this volume is what carries art to a global level beyond regional histories and cultural symbols. Absorbing critical essays on contemporary Chinese aesthetics addressing the social context and philosophical concerns that underlie Xu Bing's key works. The authors analyze Xu's art, shedding light on the tangled history of socialism and neoliberalism in the Post-Mao period. --Prof. Dr. Lothar Ledderose, Senior Professor, Institute of East Asian Art, Universität Heidelberg

Two months ago, all was perfect for Roxie Sebastian. She felt complete for the first time in her life after fusing with her lost angel soul. Also? She'd kind of saved the world, preventing a rogue angel from tearing open a rift that could have destroyed humanity and much more. So why does everything suck so much? It's not enough that her angel-assigned mission prevents her from going to college and forces her to lie to her parents. The cool powers that come along with being half angel? She sucks at them. The awesome boyfriend who helped her save her soul? He's totally jealous and clingy, just because he saw Roxie get kissed by the only other angel hybrid her age. And now, she finds out that angels aren't the whole story. There are shadows, too, and a centuries-old battle between angels and shadows that has somehow put Roxie right in the middle. Forget fake homework and the easy, memorable summer-before-college she's not having—the stakes are suddenly life or death, and the main casualty could be the one person she can't live without.
