Workbook for Franciscan Studies

This workbook combines methodology and practice for beginning translators with a solid proficiency in French. It assumes a linguistic approach to the problems of translation and addresses common pitfalls, including the delineation of “translation units”, word polysemy, false cognates, and structural and cultural obstacles to literal translation. The first part of the book focuses on specific strategies used by professionals to counter these problems, including transposition, modulation, equivalence, and adaptation. The second part of the book provides a global application of the techniques taught in the opening sections, guiding the student through step-by-step translations of literary and non-literary excerpts. The revised edition clarifies some of the finer points of the translation techniques introduced in the first edition, provides extra practice exercises, and offers information on a website that can be used in class.

Francophile Karen Eberwein had always dreamed of becoming fluent in French. She realized that the perfect way to learn is total immersion - in a small village in the Dordogne Valley. So she packs a bag, rents a rustic stone cottage, and spends nearly a year in Cenac-et-Saint-Julien, France. Karen refuses to speak English, vows to speak to anyone who is willing to talk to her, religiously carries a French dictionary, and retains a light-hearted, playful approach to learning the language. She has carefully chosen a village not dominated by tourism, arrived in December, and in a surprisingly short amount of time, the local people befriend her. Claire, her fast-talking neighbor, invites her to dinner (when it is customary to know someone for years before welcoming them inside your home) and to the 31st Exposition Nationale d'Aviculture, where Claire is showing her pigeons. The elderly man down the hill, Jean-Paul, asks Karen along on a truffle hunting adventure, a visit to a hidden, ancient walnut mill, and accompanies her to the local Occitan festival, where he shares childhood and wartime memories. The local baker invites Karen to observe a typical day at the bakery, starting at 3:00 am., to see how the breads and croissants are made. Not to be outdone, the chef at the local restaurant teaches Karen how to make the traditional Garlic Soup in time to serve it to a crowd of locals for lunch. In the process of learning a language, she becomes part of a wonderful French village. Locals who first acknowledged her with a nod, then a handshake, now greet her warmly with kisses on both cheeks. She has gained much more than a language

Discovering French-Rouge

In GOD IS A LAWYER TOO, Najih Edwards, the main character, finds himself in the sweatshop of a temp agency, where he - along with hundreds of other lawyers - reviews millions of pages of documents. He struggles to leave and reclaim his life as a successful lawyer, which seems like an impossible dream until he meets a partner at a prestigious law firm named Dale. Dale reveals the "Ten Laws of Unlimited Success," but the question is - who is Dale? Why is he shrouded in mystery? Where did he come from? Does he have the ability to hire Najih at his firm? What is Dale's secret, and how will it impact Najih's fate? If you liked THE GREATEST SALESMAN IN THE WORLD, THE PROPHET, or THE ALCHEMIST, then you will definitely love GOD IS A LAWYER TOO. The TEN LAWS OF UNLIMITED SUCCESS WORKBOOK shares all of the laws that Najih learned from Dale, along with exercises and meditations for achieving success. Author Reverend Cecilia Loving is the spiritual leader of SPIRITMUV(r) (www.spiritmuv.com), a trans-denominational church in New York City. A 1985 graduate of New York University School of Law, Rev. Loving served as Associate Appellate Counsel at the Legal Aid Society, as an Associate at Kramer Levin Nessen Kamin & Frankel, and as a Senior Associate - and then as Counsel for 20 years at Patterson Belknap Webb & Tyler LLP. While practicing law fulltime, she received her Master of Divinity from New York Theological Seminary, obtaining the President's Award for academic excellence, as well as the Rising Star Award for her innovative work in ministry. Patrick A. Bradford, Esq., Secretary of the Board of the NAACP Legal Defense and Educational Fund, Inc., calls Rev. Loving "a force of nature - evidencing God's unending grace in these difficult times." Yolanda Webb, Editor-In-Chief, E'LON Couture Magazine says Rev. Loving's "work gives us the unlimited ability to improve the quality of what we have to offer in this life." Attorney Vaughn Browne says she is "what every mentee desires in a mentor and thankfully she had the foresight to pen this incredible blueprint to share her uncommon gift with the world for generations to come." Attorney and Life Coach Femi Austin says Loving's work "reminds us of the integrative nature of our existence in which a deeper connection to spirit enhances every aspect of our life, including our careers and relationships." Rev. Dr. Cynthia Diaz, New York Theological Seminary, Director Student Affairs and Women's Center, says "Cecilia Loving is an awesome woman called by God to use her gifts as a lawyer, pastor, preacher, and teacher, to minister to our hearts and souls." Pamela D. Jones, Artist, Entrepreneur and Registered Nurse, says "Cecilia Loving's work has inspired me to spread my wings and soar " Rev. Loving's first book, PRAYERS FOR THOSE STANDING ON THE EDGE OF GREATNESS (www.amazon.com), sets forth the spiritual tools necessary to move from the ordinary into the extraordinary and has already changed the lives of many. Her second book, GOD IS A BROWN GIRL TOO, is one of the first books in which God speaks as a black woman to black women. It is regarded as one of the best books to help women of all colors realize the power of the divine within (www.godisabrowngirltoo.webs.com)

CBIP is the complete reference and buying guide to English-language Canadian books currently in print; consequently, the Author and Title Index, Subject Index and microfiche editions are indispensable to the book profession. With submissions from both small and large publishers, CBIP provides access to titles not listed anywhere else. Containing more than 48,000 titles, of which approximately 4,000 have a 2001 imprint, the Author and Title Index is extensively cross-referenced. The Subject Index lists the titles under 800 different subject categories. Both books offer the most complete directory of Canadian publishers available, listing the names and ISBN prefixes, as well as the street, e-mail and web addresses of more than 4,850 houses. The quarterly microfiche service provides updated information in April, July and October. CBIP is constantly referred to by order librarians, booksellers, researchers, and all those involved in book acquisition. In addition, CBIP is an invaluable record of the vast wealth of publishing and writing activity in the scientific, literary, academic and arts communities across Canada. A quarterly subscription service including the annual Author and Title Index (March 2001) plus quarterly microfiche updates (April, July, and October 2001) is also available. Modern French Grammar Workbook, second edition, is an innovative book of exercises and language tasks for all learners of French. The book is divided into two sections: * section 1 provides exercises based on essential grammatical structures * section 2 practises everyday functions (e.g. making introductions, apologizing, expressing needs). A comprehensive answer key at the back of the book enables you to check your progress. Taking into account feedback from the first edition, this second edition now features: * exercises graded on a 3-point scale according to their level of difficulty * cross-referencing to the Modern French Grammar, Second Edition, for each and every exercise * topical exercises that develop vocabulary. Modern French Grammar Workbook is ideal for all learners of French: beginners, intermediate and advanced students. It can be used both independently and alongside the Modern French Grammar (ISBN 0-415-33162-5).

It seems easy to disregard those inner wounds inside in hopes that they will go away. But wounds that aren't dealt with become more infected and they manifest in many ways and many areas of our lives without us knowing it. It seems easier to ignore them than to work on them. At first the work can feel intense but then with each layer that is healed relief comes. Soon it becomes easier to embrace the idea of dealing with the wounds and unloading the weights that come with them. If you are longing to unload the weights of abuse and pain then this workbook is a great start for you. Take courage and begin your work toward freedom.
